The was thrown out of the car head first, striking on my face and left side," reads a letter from Judge Foote received by a friend. "No oones were broken, but I am a mass of bruises and sores. I suffer so much from my injuries that I cannot rest, but the doctor tells me I shall come out all right."

Capital to Baltimore, July 1.—After walking all the way from Washington to enlist in his oid regiment, John Friel, a former inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Hampton, Va., falled to pass the physical examination at the Fifth Regiment Armory this morning and was rejected by the surgeons.

Friel was one of twelve old soldiers who left the home several days ago to try to join the colors. He admitted after being rejected that he was 51 years old, but said he thought he was able to fight as well as a younger man. He served five years in the regular army and was with the Fifth Maryland Volunteers in the Spanish-American war. A weak
